Goodwill Works with Agencies to Provide Vouchers for Victims of the Earthquake in Haiti

Goodwill also working with Partners in Health to provide clothes

Goodwill is working with the American Red Cross, Catholic Charities' Haitian Multi-Service Center, and the state's Executive Office of Health and Human Services to provide vouchers to Goodwill Stores for Haitians and their families who have suffered as a result of January's earthquake.

Goodwill is providing the vouchers to these organizations who will then distribute them to individuals or families affected by the Haitian earthquake. The vouchers can be redeemed at any of the 11 Goodwill Stores in eastern and central Massachusetts.

Goodwill is also working with Partners in Health to provide clothing from its inventory of donations for people in Haiti.
