Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response or note to any line in this Part III

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission:

The mission of Morgan Memorial Goodwill Industries (Goodwill) is to help individuals with barriers to self-sufficiency to achieve independence and dignity through work. Not charity, but a chance.

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ?

Yes No

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O.

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services?

Yes No

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O.

4 Describe the organization's program service accomplishments for each of its three largest program services, as measured by expenses. Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported.

4a (Code:) (Expenses $ 7,813,887 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 9,822,343)

Schedule O: Job Training and Career Services Goodwill is a community-based nonprofit organization and a leading provider of job training and career services in Massachusetts. Goodwill's mission services help individuals who face barriers to self-sufficiency prepare for the workplace, find jobs, and advance in order to support themselves and their families. In the year ending June 30, 2025, Goodwill served 4,071 individuals through its mission services. Goodwill Boston Career Center, the career center Goodwill operates at its headquarters in Roxbury, assisted 3,536 individuals with career services including resume preparation, interview practice, online application assistance, labor market information, and training referrals. The career center also brought 69 employers on site for 65 recruitment events and documented 259 placements. Work readiness and skills training programs enrolled 129 people considered hardest to employ, offering case management, job skills and job readiness training, on-the-job training, placement, and post-placement supports. Trainees included individuals with limited work histories and low educational attainment, citizens returning from correction, victims of domestic violence, and individuals on Transitional Assistance. Of the participants, 51 found jobs and started on paths to self-sufficiency. Developmental services offered a range of employment, pre-employment, and other day programs to 406 individuals with developmental and other disabilities, including public high school students with special needs. Employment-oriented services include work readiness training, on-the-job training, case management, placement, and post-placement supports. Goodwill's social enterprises provided on-the-job training and a paycheck to 167 individuals through the retail program and the housekeeping/maintenance contracted services. (The retail program is described in Part III, Line 4b).

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 22,577,904 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 17,528,291)

Schedule O: Retail Program The retail program is a social enterprise that benefits the community by providing job training for individuals with barriers to self-sufficiency and by making quality, low-cost goods available at affordable prices for individuals and families that need to stretch their budgets. The retail program provides job training for individuals with barriers to self-sufficiency in collecting, processing, merchandising, and selling donated goods. It creates jobs and economic vitality in the communities in which stores and operations are located. It also offers community members a convenient way to reuse and recycle clothing and household goods. In the year ending June 30, 2025, Goodwill's retail program operated 14 stores and an outlet store and collected donations at an additional 16 sites throughout Massachusetts. Goodwill's retail program handled 1.2 million sales transactions and reused and recycled 28.6 million pounds of donated clothing and household goods.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 Review Process Independent tax advisors from a national professional services firm prepare the IRS Form 990. The Treasurer of the Board reviews it and all directors receive copies prior to its submission to the IRS.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Conflict of Interest Policy Monitoring and Enforcement The Board of Directors has established a Conflict/Disclosure of Interest Policy requiring officers, directors, and members of committees with board-delegated powers to disclose any interests at the time the possibility of a conflict arises or they become aware there is a possibility of a conflict. All conflicts or transactions involving an interested party are reviewed by the Board or the Executive Committee. If a conflict or potential conflict exists, interested parties recuse themselves from discussions of and votes on any related party transactions in which they have an interest. In addition, all officers, directors, and members of committees with board-delegated powers are required to review the policy on an annual basis and affirmatively indicate any matters requiring disclosure. A written statement of all related party transactions and other disclosures is provided annually to each member of the Board of Directors.
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Process for Determining Compensation The Board of Directors has established an Executive Compensation Policy for the President/CEO and Vice Presidents. The Board Compensation Committee is comprised of independent members and is responsible for the overall administration of executive compensation. The Committee annually recommends the Executive Compensation Program to the Board of Directors. The Compensation Committee regularly engages a compensation consultant to compile and evaluate data regarding compensation of similarly qualified individuals in comparable positions at organizations of comparable size and complexity in both the nonprofit and for-profit sectors. The Compensation Committee evaluates the President/CEO's performance and makes recommendations for the President/CEO's compensation to the Board. It also monitors the compensation of the Vice Presidents to assure compliance with the approved program. The Compensation Committee reports its recommendations to the Board for approval in executive session. Deliberations and recommendations are documented in writing. The Executive Compensation Policy and Program were followed in setting the compensation for the President/CEO and Vice Presidents.
Form 990, Part VI, Section C, line 19	How Documents Are Made Available to the Public Governance documents are available to the public as follows: the Annual Report, Audited Financial Statements, and Forms 990 are on the organization's website; the Articles of Organization, By-laws, Code of Ethics, and Conflict/Disclosure of Interest Policy are available on request, as indicated on the website.
